

MASTER COURSE BY YOSHIKI SHIBATA – THE VIOLIN CONCERTO WITH ORCHESTRA

The 8th International Master Course, The Violin Concerto with Orchestra, will take place in Berlin.

The First International Master Course was given with great success in March 2008 in Berlin under the direction of the renowned violinist Yoshiaki Shibata. Consequently, a further continuing course has been planned for the year 2011. Yoshiaki Shibata, the artistic director of the Neues Sinfonieorchester Berlin, will provide the violin soloists with the possibility to rehearse with a large symphony orchestra.

The high point of the week's program will be a concert featuring the student soloists chosen for the master course. As only a limited number of candidates can be accepted for the course, early application is highly recommended.

Application: To insure a high standard of musical proficiency, persons desiring to participate in the course are requested to submit in advance a recorded example (CD, MD, DVD and MC) including a CV of their work addressed to Mr. Yoshiaki Shibata. (+49 177 319 89 56) Duo Works can also be applied for alone. In this case Mr. Shibata will play the Violin- or Viola-Part.

Application Deadline: February 15, 2015. The participants' admission occurs up to February 20, 2015.

Course fees: 400,- € (individuals) / 600,- € (duo)

Within seven days after receiving the participant admission it's obligated to transfer advance payment of 100,- €. A refund of the registration fee is only possible if a course must be cancelled by the administration. The remainder upon arrival in cash to pay.

Accommodation: individual (e.g.: www.hrs.de)

The 8th International Master Course Violin Concerto with Orchestra March 15 – March 29, 2015

Master Teacher: Yoshiaki Shibata

YOSHIAKI SHIBATA

Born in Tokyo, Yoshiaki Shibata studied violin at the Hochschule der Künste, Berlin as an undergraduate, and completed his Masters degree under Prof. Manfred Scherzer at the Hochschule für Musik „Carl Maria von Weber“ in Dresden, graduating with distinction. Since 2003, he has been working as artistic director and violin soloist in the Neues Sinfonieorchester Berlin.

Shibata received his artistic direction and mentoring from Ida Haendel, Yehudi Menuhin and Ruggiero Ricci. He appeared extensively in international concerts and competitions, winning prestigious prizes in contests such as the International Tchaikovsky Competition, the International Violin Competition in Hannover, and the International Instrument Competition Markneukirchen. Shibata participated in important festivals such as Schleswig-Holstein Musik Festival, the Sergiu Celibidache Festival and the Festival Classic Open Air in Berlin's Gendarmenmarkt.

He headlines the Neues Sinfonieorchester Berlin, with whom he appears regularly as soloist and is an accomplished and well-known soloist appearing with other renowned orchestras, such as the Konzerthausorchester in Berlin. He has been recorded in broadcasts by SFB, MDR and RIAS Berlin, and appeared in television programs on NDR and ZDF.

Yoshiaki Shibata, 2011 was chairman of the jury of the 1st International Violin Competition "Art Center of Tokyo" and 2014 Jury members of the XXIII International Violin Competition of Ipolyka-Gyarfas Foundation.
